Foreword

YOU READ the 1923 Sagebrusher today from curiosity. But if you will read this same Sagebrusher in afterdays when it has become a rare old keepsake to you, spending hours looking into the past through this mirror, recalling those real days, and still enjoy it as much as you enjoy the criticising today; then we feel that the work has not been futile, that the responsibility thrust upon us has been fulfilled, and will in this realization be happy.

Dedication

In token of the great good wrought for the Rock Springs
High School through his never failing and untiring zeal, we feel that our Principal

E. M. THOMPSON

has truly earned the humble but all-meaning homage we pay to him in dedicating this

The 1923 Sagebrusher

History of the Senior Class of 1923

SEPTEMBER, 1919, a Freshman class of 94 entered Rock Springs High School. We entered High School the same as other Freshmen, with big ideas about ourselves for being so far advanced, envious of the Sophs and Juniors, and slightly respectful toward the Seniors, but most of all an unswerving loyalty to Rock Springs High, which has not decreased during the last four years. Although not very well organized, we carried on many successful activities during our Freshman year. As it is expected of every Freshman class to take so many insults and shocks to their pride, from the more advanced classes, we took our share cheerfully and are glad to report that we have completely recovered.

In our Sophomore year a few of our schoolmates left us, leaving us a class of 66. The Sophs gave a costume party which was one of the events of the year, at which all countries were represented. Somewhat later in the year the Sophomore Home Economic Girls entertained the Laramie High boys, which established a standard of entertaining for the Sophs that has not been broken all through our High School course. At the State Contests at Laramie the Sophomores were duly represented by William Glen for declamation, and Thora Hatch for vocal. In fact, every school activity was represented by talented Sophomores.

As Juniors in 1922 we came back to school with 58 members. During this year we won much praise and honor for our school. We are proud to say that we were first in Relay Race, High School inter-class basket ball tournament, and final inter-class debate. Eight of the fourteen Rock Springs representatives at the State Tournament were from the Junior Class, entering the following contests: Basket ball, debate, vocal, extemporaneous, and typewriting. Our two debate boys, William Glen and Leonard Hansen, not only won first place in inter-class debate, but they also won first place at the State Tournament, bringing home with them a beautiful cup and the first shield to add to the trophies of the school. Our class pins and rings were very artistic and showed great superiority of taste on the part of the class.

The Hallowe'en Frolic was a great success this year. Every class had a share in the program and the Juniors showed the variety of talent of their class. Rosie Tayo sang a solo, several of the Junior boys gave a very clever negro minstrel scene, and six of the Junior girls gave a Romeo and Juliet dance. When Junior Prom came we acquitted ourselves creditably. The decorations were very artistic and unique. The affair with its decorations, refreshments, favors, and general atmosphere of geniality was voted "Best Ever." At the close of our Junior year we published the "Sagebrusher," which was not only an honor to the Junior Class, but to the whole school.

We entered High School for our Senior year 55 in number. We lived up to our well-earned reputation in debate during our Senior year and won the inter-class debate. We had contestants at the State Tournament in basket ball, debate, violin, piano, vocal, extemporaneous and shorthand. Thus 10 out of the 14 Rock Springs representatives were Seniors. Our violinist, Leno Ceretto, won first place at Laramie, bringing home with him another shield for the school. The debate boys, William Glen and John Hay, won second place. The Senior class party, a Senior ball, was a great honor to the Senior class, the music and refreshments were the best to be had, and every one had a fine time.

In short, in all school activities the class of "23" has won honors for themselves and for their school. We leave school with lingering thoughts of our good times and of our schoolmates, and as we say good bye our hopes are that as the years go by we may look with pride upon the progressing school which is our Alma Mater.

—EVA WILLIAMS.

Will of the Class of '23

WE, the Class of '23, being about to leave our beloved Rock Springs High School forever, in full possession of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by us at any time heretofore made.

Believing that it is never too late to rectify a failing and to start erring individuals on the right path, we do bequeath to the Juniors our ambition, our ability to win championships, our seats in the Assembly and our English teacher.

To the Sophomores we leave our debating material—outlines, books and other notes. All the good parts have been marked, so don't puzzle your brains too much.

To the Freshmen we will leave our faith in ourselves, our dignity about the halls and classrooms, our love for those long suffering individuals, the teachers, our deportment grades and our keen desire to study.

To Mr. Thompson the class wishes to bequeath all excuse slips and all visits to the office.

To the rest of the Faculty we leave all the "E's" with which they were so kind and considerate to give us. We hope they use them to better advantage hereafter.

Freda Forbes wills part of her rouge to Mary Whelan. May Mary profit by the exchange, Fritz won't miss it.

Joe Magagna wills his pool shooting ability to Herman Menkiney. May Herman make use of his fifth periods.

Elizabeth Morton leaves her affable disposition to Amy Harvey.

Eleanor Rennie wills her knowledge of aesthetic dancing to John Jamieson.

Richard Bertagnolli leaves his curly hair to Willard Feldscher.

Edwin James wills his permanent wave to Miss Lude-man. May she save her money in the future.

William Glen wills his bottle of "Stay Comb" to Robert Outsen. Here's where you shine, Robert.

Horace Moffitt wills his freckles and red hair to Henry Pedri. They'll never be noticed on Henry.

John Erickson wills his Valentino trousers to Leno Menghini.

Clyde Kellogg wills his love for green to next year's Freshman class.

Eugene Sellers wills his bashfulness to Aubrey Bruce. Aubrey needs it.

Audrey Harvey wills her chewing gum to Emlyn Griffiths. Let's have a world's record for Rock Springs High School.

Hannah Powell wills her love and ability for dolling up to Lillian Martin. It's the art of a genius.

Harriet Booth wills her love for mathematics to George Fletcher. Here's your chance for an A, George.

Jack Dewar bequeaths his art of making out re-entry slips to John Wendt. May he guard the secret well.

Regina Balasko bequeaths her marvelous strength to Carrie Cundy.

Lester Stitler bequeaths his hilarious disposition to Joe Giovale. May Joe's deportment grade show a marked improvement in the future.

Will Chester bequeaths his love for Marion Hougard to Max Kershisnik. Be kind to him, Marion.

Alice Gardner leaves her laugh to Emlyn Griffiths.

John Hay wills his method of getting trial balances to future bookkeeping students. May they use it with discretion.

Esther Abraham leaves her knowledge of shorthand to Hannah Calderwood.

Claire Sellers wills his brown school suit to Roland Bates. Rowland should make a success as "Grandma's Boy."

John Schnauber wills his love for the teachers to Charles Pedri.

Afton McMahon wills her curls to Dorothy Spani.

Elmer Bennett bequeaths his pass on the R. R. to Barney Decora. See the world, Barney.

John Berta wills his glasses to Harold Lloyd.

John Forndran wills his pep to Jespehine Scott.

John Galacich wills his standing with the teachers to Elden Johnson.

Ernest Sinko leaves his love for the ladies to Bill Medill.

Verbon Toucher wills his football blanket to parties unknown. For further particulars see Annie Popernaik.

Victoria Angelovich wills her kiddishness to Marjorie Clark.

Marie Esselstein wills her curling iron to Cecelia Sabo.

Josephine Hay leaves her dignity to Mario Fedrizzi.

Toini Karppi wills her art of peroxidizing her hair to Lucille Finney.

Dorothy Larsen leaves her quietness to Alvin Portwood.

Evelyn Lewis wills her bottle of anti-fat to Lolita Rinks.

Dorothy Soulsby wills her vanity case to Isabelle DeWester.

Louise Syme wills her musical ability to Rose Dolard.

Anna Williams wishes to keep everything, especially her bad habit of going to the vaudeville every Sunday night.

Eva Williams leaves her job at the Stock Growers to Clara Boyle.

Raymonde Pellet wills her poetry to Wesley Chester. Make good use of it, Wesley. Lillian likes poetry.

Eugenia Brooks bequeaths her membership in the brilliant club to Louise Page.

Billie Gilpin leaves his ability to bluff the teachers to Frank Potochnic.

Ione Riess leaves her popularity to anyone who is able to get it.

Rosa Tayo leaves her name to the Rock Springs High School Hall of Fame, as one who loved them all.

Ida Theusen leaves her art of dying her hair to Harriet Moffitt.

Anna Wataha leaves her dignity to Lucille Dixon.

Sophie Parzymieso wills her hair ribbon to Janet Bruce.

Billie Liddell leaves his unused cap to George Larra-baster.

John Mrak leaves his interest in R. S. H. S. bells to Dwight Jones. He seems to be able to take care of them.

John Korfanta leaves his love of prohibity to James Outsen.

Leno Ceretto wills Alice Bell to Elden Johnson, George Berta, Alex Horseley, Wesley Chester and Charles Pedri.

John Pensick wills his knowledge of basket ball to Renaldo Menghini.

Alma Bertagnolli wills her great height to Roland Bates in the hopes that Roland may become a successful star gazer.

Margaret Stavarn wills her vanity case to Isabelle DeWester.

Juniors

AS Freshmen the Class of '24 had an enrollment of 96; as Sophomores an enrollment of 84, and now in our Junior year there is an enrollment of 69.

Everyone learns something of the greatness of the Class of '24, but lest it be forgotten, we shall mention a few of our achievements.

"The Sagebrusher Monthly," the first high school newspaper of Rock Springs, was organized and successfully carried on by the Juniors.

The Annual of this year will be one of the best ever put out by this school. It will be made successful by the efforts of the Class and the sponsors.

The Junior boys gave a very successful dance and took in enough money to help publish the Annual.

From a social standpoint the Juniors have been successful. At Christmas a very entertaining dance was given, but the Junior Prom surpassed anything given this year. The Gym was decorated in lavender and white. This Prom was entirely different and the most successful given here. It was carried out on an entirely different plan than formerly. It was considered by everyone to have been the most entertaining event of the year.

In Athletics the Juniors have not been slow. Five of the ten members of the Girls Basket Ball team are Juniors. Our boys took first place in the Interclass Basket Ball Tournament. Five Junior boys occupy prominent places on the Basket Ball Team. Four of them attended the Tournament with the regular team. All of the boys from former experience are ready to take their places on the team and make the Junior Class a name in the history of the school.

It can be said honestly of this class that they have accomplished as much if not more than any former class, and they are well equipped to graduate with higher honors.

Sophomores

THE Sophomore Class is the second largest class in school. Though we are second in size, in quality we are second to none.

Miss Ludeman, Miss Sloan and Miss Wilson are our sponsors. Raino Matson, president; Wesley Chester, vice president; Lucille Dixon, secretary, and Ruth Vail, treasurer, are very efficient officers.

On December fifth we gave our class party. In the first part of the evening a well prepared program was given; afterwards we danced. The boys served a very delicious lunch, and after more dancing the party adjourned.

In the Inter-class Debate the Soph's team, composed of Wesley Chester, Raino Matson, Edwin Magagna and Charles Wassung, won from the Freshmen, and lost by default to the Seniors.

In Athletics our class has taken a prominent part. Donald Hansen was on the football team, and in the Inter-class Basket Ball tryouts, the Sophomores' team, consisting of Hansen, Chaddiz, Matson, Epps and Ferlic took second place.

Altogether our class has been unusually successful, and may well enter our Junior year with the motto, "Venit, Vedit, Vicit."

The Class of 1926

“SENIORS may come and senior may go, but Freshmen go on forever.” Though green and presumptuous as they do appear, the Freshmen have gallantly overthrown the high dignity of the upper classmen and triumphantly entered into various school activities on an equal basis with their elders. Give us time, brethren, give us time! The Seniors look at us with that far away soulful expression in their eyes, as if they were staring into vacancy—which they probably are; the Juniors seem to take it for granted that we are novices and therefore obtrusive and non-essential; and even the sophomores, who not long since were in our same lowly position and who should pity if not console us, merely scoff and jeer. But who knows? A few short years may find some tow-headed, flop-eared freshman boy a second Ring Lardner, and some awkward, self-conscious freshman girl another Mary Pickford.

The Freshman class is the largest class in school. We have 115 enrolled. Miss Roessler, Miss Burns and Miss Gibson have been our class sponsors. Sidney Reynolds has acted as president, Frank Potochnic, secretary and Opal Ayers, treasurer.

The freshman boys distinguished themselves in the interclass basketball tournament.

The debate team made a good showing in the class debates and the class as a whole has given several successful programs in general assembly. The future is ahead of us (what else should a future be) and we have no bothersome past to hide, so we repeat, “Give us time and we shall try not to disappoint you.”

GIRLS' CLASS IN MILLINERY

BOYS' CLASS IN COOKING

Home Economics

ONE thing for which the world may well be thankful is the general awakening to the fact that home keeping is not a sentimental playing with pretty things, and it should not be drudgery. The making and ordering of a home is a real profession and as such calls for as much and as careful training as other vocations. As a consequence our Home Economics Department is considering the welfare of our girls along every possible phase of home making.

Cooking, dietetics, hygiene, boy scout cooking, home nursing, sewing, dress making, textiles and millinery have already found a place in our school curriculum. New work will be added each year as is best suited for the students registered. The courses are so planned to train in habits of cleanliness, order, and methodical work; to give a knowledge of the needs of the body and how best to supply these needs, and to develop the ability to plan, calculate costs, prepare and serve a meal, and to buy, make and care for clothing.

All work in our Home Economics Department is so taught as to emphasize the importance and dignity of home making; to arouse a scientific interest in the problems of housekeeping, sanitation and hygiene; to raise the standard of home making by providing ideals of beauty and intelligent workmanship and to establish closer relationship between the school and the home. Thus our girls are enabled to accomplish the most in their student life, to assist in the care of the home and to be of better service to society.

Normal Training

THE attention of the girls in High School has been drawn to the Normal Training Department. This department made its appearance in the Rock Springs High School September 5, 1922, with Miss Burns as the instructor. This class has a total enrollment of thirteen; ten Senior girls and three graduates of the class of '22.

During the year the class received experience in teaching under rural school conditions. Each student also taught under the supervision of one of the teachers in the public schools.

The courses offered in this department include, Psychology, Methods in all elementary subjects, School Management, Principles of Teaching, Agriculture and Nature Study, Observation and Practice Teaching.

Upon the completion of the work in this department each student is issued a certificate which entitles her to teach in any standard rural school in the state.

Manual Training

THE great increase in the enrollment in the High School has caused an ever increasing demand for more modern and broader education. The Manual Training Department endeavored to meet this, so we find that where one or two courses were offered in the past we now have established courses in the following: Beginning and advanced cabinet making, mechanical drawing, shop sketching and machine design, architectural drawing, cement and sheet metal work.

Beginning High School students spend half time in drawing and half in wood-work, while advanced students spend full time in following their respective courses. All the work carried on in Manual Training is not under the Smith-Hughes law, therefore there are no limitations, so time is spent in developing the cultural and social side of a student as well as the technical side. As a whole the department has seemed to meet the demand placed upon it by society, and that of the development of an intelligent American citizen.

Department of Mathematics

FOR the past two years, instead of the regular first-year course in Algebra, a course in generalized mathematics has been given because it is considered much more practical. From this course the pupil acquires a working knowledge of graphs, scale drawings, similar triangles, right angles, cosines, and tangents which he usually does not acquire unless he takes a course in Geometry and Trigonometry. Enough of the fundamentals of Algebra are given to enable him to take a course in advanced Algebra if he should need it in his shop work or for entrance credit to a university.

Since many pupils often find plane Geometry rather difficult, the course is open only to those who have been recommended by their instructors or to those who have a special need for it. The course is very practical for anyone who is taking shop work or manual training.

For several years a course in advanced Algebra was not offered, but it was introduced again this year. It is advisable for all who plan to attend a university to take the course in advanced Algebra and also solid Geometry. Solid Geometry is not being given at the present time, but would probably be given if the demand for it were great enough.

Department of Social Science

THE emphasis of modern education upon social sciences has greatly increased during the last twenty years. Whether it be the historical, the political, the economic, or the social side that is stressed, the purpose of this study is to bring out the outstanding features of civilization. The very existence of all institutions tests upon a good understanding of the problems which made them and have resulted from them. In whatever line of work a person becomes interested, it is very essential for him to understand the will and way of those people with whom he associates directly or indirectly in order that he may attain the greatest degree of success possible.

In the program offered by this department the tendency has been to emphasize the social and vocational features in the following semester subjects: Occupation for boys, followed by Civics and Community Life; Ancient and Medieval History; Modern European and American History with emphasis on current topics; Economics and Sociology.

Several articles have been added to the museum which now contains a varied collection of Indian art, coins, stamps, ores, petrified woods, shells and miscellaneous objects gathered from various places of interest.

Commercial Department

IT is our aim in the Commercial Department to make the work offered as complete and practical as possible.

We are interested in the finished product and no matter how much work is accomplished by a student unless he can, at the completion of his course, satisfy this aim, he cannot receive credit for the work. With this end in view the advanced Shorthand students, before they complete the course, are required to spend a certain length of time in the superintendent's office doing the work of a regular stenographer before being granted credit for their completed work. A number of pupils in this class are also filling part time positions in offices in the town. They receive credit for work done as well as salary for their services.

The Bookkeeping Course deals with the theory of bookkeeping and when this is thoroughly mastered, practical work is taken up introducing the use of all business papers, and each pupil is required to work out one set of books independently with very little assistance. Plans are under way another year, to construct a bank and business offices in the department.

The Salesmanship Course is divided into three distinct units. The first semester is spent on the psychological development of salesmanship; taking up the development of the ability of the head, reliability of the heart, endurance of the body, and action of the will. Much time is spent on the development of personality and correct thinking habits. The second semester work is of a more practical nature. Retail selling is taught in connection with a dummy retail store and a cash register. Advertising is introduced the last term of the second semester and the pupil sees the seven steps in the law of a sale learned in the development of the course must also be considered in writing advertisements. Advertisements are collected and discussed in class, and members of the class then write original advertisements.

ELECTRICAL LABORATORY

MACHINE SHOP

Mine Electrical Department

THE first year of the mine electrical course is open chiefly to Sophomores since a foundation of mathematics is required; however, Freshmen are sometimes admitted. During this year the student has to comply with the Smith-Hughes Act, inasmuch as three hours must be spent in shop work, and thirty-five per cent related work. The student's half day in the shop consists of lathe, drill press, forge and bench work, where accuracy and speed are emphasized. In related work he is required to study theory of shop practice and sciences involved, shop sketching and shop problems. What the student gets out of this depends, mostly, on himself, since he is allowed to advance as fast as he shows proficiency.

In the second and third years, electricity and machine shop are taught. A complete course is given in direct and alternating current theory, electrical draughting, estimating, practical electrical and machine shop work; such as house-wiring, motor repair work, armature winding, making bearings, shafts, etc. Commercial repair work in electricity is also taught to the students. Wiring complete turned out for the city and adjoining communities. Auto and overhead valve motor, tuning ignition and checking valves. A complete set of A-C and D-C instruments is part of the equipment for testing and working out electrical theory.

Positions are found for the students upon completion of the three-year course.

Inter-class Basketball Tournament

MUCH interest and rivalry was shown in the class tournament this year. The classes of '23 and '24 were the bitterest rivals. The class of '23 nosed out '24 in the last year's tourney for the school championship.

The teams were divided into two classes, consisting of A and B. Each team playing in its own class until the finals, when the winners of A played the winners of B to decide the school championship.

FINAL STANDING OF TEAMS

Class A	W.	L.	Pct.
Juniors .....	3	0	1000
Sophomores .....	2	1	667
Freshmen .....	1	2	333
Seniors .....	0	3	000
Class B	W.	L.	Pct.
Seniors .....	3	0	1000
Juniors .....	2	1	667
Freshmen .....	1	2	333
Sophomores .....	0	3	000

Juniors A took the High School championship from the Seniors B in two straight games:

FIRST GAME

Junior A .....	32
Senior B .....	17

SECOND GAME

Junior A .....	22

Basketball

BASKETBALL has been good this year and the team has established a record that future Rock Springs teams will have to step hard to beat. The team won eighteen straight games and lost but four out of twenty-seven games played. Rock Springs has the record in the state this year for winning the most games straight before losing any.

The team this year had the two guards in the state, Pensick and Toucher, who had the least points scored against them. Jamieson also scored a greater average per game than any other man in the state.

The team made a record at the tournament by piling up the highest score made in any one game, and by having the least number of points scored against them.

Although the team did not take the State Championship, they have the best season-record in the state. The outlook for next year's team is good with as skilled a player as Jamieson for captain.

Ernest Sinko

Ernest is long and lanky with great energetic powers. He played some good games this season. He's of '23.

Charles Pedri

As a guard Pedri is up and coming, full of pep and never-say-die spirit. He is sure to fill Pensick's place next year.

John Pensick

Pensick is the best back-guard ever produced by Rock Springs. He made the all-state this year and is known thru-out the state as the air tight guard. The team is proud to have him as captain and sorry to lose him as he graduates this year.

John Korfanta

He may be small but he's aggressive. We believe he could lick his weight in wildcats. He's a go-getter. Crow's accurate basket shooting has been of untold value to the team. We'll miss him next year.

Charles Martin

Charles is the youngest player on the team. He's a fast forward and has an eye for baskets.

John Jamieson

Jimmy is one of the mainstays of the team. His consistent and steady playing has been a great help in giving the team the record it has this year. As a center, He's It. Jimmy plays the floor, is a bear-cat on dribbling and is great in scoring.

Robert Outsen

"Tiny" worked himself from a sub at the first of the year to a regular before the tournament. When he rambled towards the goal the score keepers usually used their pencils. The longest man on the team with 6 feet 2 inches to his credit.

Richard Bertagnolli

Richard worked hard to get his letter in basketball this year. He's a fighting forward and is always ready when needed.

Verbon Toucher

"Bunk" has shown up exceptionally well at guard. He's big and fast and he has a good way of continually getting the ball from his opponents. Bunk graduates this year.

Max Kershisnik

Max is a good guard and we think that next year he'll be a regular on the team.

Football

ALTHOUGH this is the first year that the pigskin was introduced in Rock Springs High School, we must say that the school is very proud of her gridiron squad. Coach Kepler (Cornell graduate), who came this year to Rock Springs High School to coach athletics, developed a winning team from green material. In fact, there were only three men who had even so much as seen a game of football and there were none who played. But, thanks to the coach and the diligence with which the men trained, the team was able to outclass its opponents. Out of the four games played three were won by the black and orange.

We hope for more games and still better results from next year's squad, although only five letter men will be back.

ALL STARS VS. ROCK SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL

The first game played was with the All-Stars, a local team made up of college men. The All-Stars scored in the first quarter, but after that the High School eleven fought so hard and played so well that the All-Stars were unable to score more points. The game ended in a victory of 12 to 0 in favor of the All-Stars.

EVANSTON VS. ROCK SPRINGS

The game with Evanston at Evanston was fast and snappy all the way through. The team showed much improvement since their game with the All-Stars. The Orange and Black won its first football victory, 19-0.

EVANSTON VS. ROCK SPRINGS

The return game with Evanston proved another victory for Rock Springs. The business men showed that they were behind the team by closing all places of business during the game, so that everyone might have a chance to attend the game.

Evanston came with lots of pep and fight, but the Rock Springs lads outplayed them. The final score was 12-0.

ALL-STARS VS. HIGH SCHOOL

The last game of the season was played with the All-Stars. The High School eleven showed much improvement since their first game. Their offense and defense was much superior to that of the All-Stars. Our boys were also outweighed 25 pounds to the man. The game was hard fought and the outcome was doubtful, but when the last whistle blew the score stood 6-0 in favor of Rock Springs High School.

M. E. VS. HIGH SCHOOL

April 23rd the M. E. Department played against the rest of the High School in a football game which ended a tie, 0-0. The M. E. boys had scarcely any practice; the High School very little more. This was shown by the frequent fumbles and incompleted forward passes. Both teams put up a stiff battle and the game was interesting through to the finish.

Jack Dewar

Jack was the big left tackle who played havoc with his opponents. He cleared a way that you could have driven a wagon through. Jack is a good sport and will be missed by next year's eleven. Class of '23.

Elmer Bennett

"Benny" was a nifty center that could always be depended upon for snapping the ball and bucking the line. A square player. Class of '23.

Joe Galicich

Joe was a sub-back. And if this were not his last year Joe would make a name for himself. Class of '23.

Charles Pedri

"Chas." could always be depended upon for making substantial gains. He was equally good on defense, stopping everything coming his way. Our future captain.

Robert Outsen

We can't figure why they call him "Sleepy." He's a sure enough football player. Long and lanky, he'll make a real center for the next eleven.

"Bill" Gilpin

Bill was a good receiver of passes and a hard fighter. Billy will not be easily replaced on the coming squad.

John Mrak

John is a speedy end and an expert at receiving forward passes and making good gains. Class of '23.

Roy Epps

"Alexander Sapoleno.. Epps. like his name, is a fancy player. Hard to hit and a hard hitter.

Alphonso Epps

"Phonso" was a good dependable sub, always there with bells on. He expects to be one of our future linemen for the coming year.

"Crow" Korfanta

John was our fighting quarterback. He did more than call signals. A wizard at getting through the line on account of his small size. We'll have to find a new quarterback for next year.

"Tootie" Schnauber

Captain John Schnauber, right tackle, will be hard to replace next year. 180 pounds to his credit and all muscle. He was the ruination of the opposing line.

Donald Hansen

"Don" is a halfback. He will make a great player next year. And the boy is just a sophomore.

Verbon Toucher

"Bunk" held down the full-back position. The boy that did the scoring for Rock Springs and also the team's punter. Bunk is a noble senior and will be a big loss to the team.

Eugene Sellers

Just like his brother, Claire, a fighting guard who never gave up until the last whistle blew. Eugene is of the Class of '23.

Claire Sellers

Clair's name may not look tough, but then what's in a name? A guard to be depended upon. Class of '23.

BOYS' GYMNASIUM CLASS

GIRLS' GYMNASIUM CLASS

Girls Basketball Team

THIS is the first year that a girls basket ball team, able to stage games for the benefit of the public, has ever been organized.

Practice was begun late in the season. This handicapped the team but the girls' team, under the direction of Coach Hudson, developed so rapidly that they were able to make one good showing before the close of the season.

The first game was played with Green River girls on the Rock Springs floor. The second game was at Green River. In both games the Rock Springs girls suffered defeat. The third game was at Rock Springs. Our girls came back hard in this game and in spite of the physical prowess of the Green River girls they tied several times and it was only in the last thirty seconds that the victory was given to Green River.

The last game was played at Green River and resulted in another defeat for Rock Springs.

Dancing Class

A new activity, a class in dancing, was organized this year, under the supervision of Miss Helen Hudson.

Thirty-five girls were enrolled in this class the first of the year, and thirty the second part of the year, making a total of sixty-five girls who enrolled in this class during the year. Some of the dances that have been taught are: The Nola, Irish Jig, Sailors Horpipe, Three in a Group, Minuet, Flower Waltz, Humoreske, Virginia Reel, Dixie, and other folk dances. Girls from this class have appeared before audiences in the "Garden of the Shah," Elks Minstrels, and various programs in the gymnasium.

Athletic Theory

ATHLETIC Theory was offered as an activity this year to all boys interested in athletics. Thirty-two boys enrolled.

In this class the fundamentals of basketball and football were studied, various plays analyzed, and the theories of the games discussed.

DEBATE

Interclass Debates

ON Thursday and Friday, November 23 and 24, the High School held its annual debate tryout for the purpose of selecting the class debating teams. The Seniors made a good showing with several debaters of the last year's team to represent them. The Juniors did not take part in the tryout but appointed their team. The Sophomores had several debaters who showed talent and ability to do some original thinking. The Freshmen, though inexperienced, put up some real argument.

The class teams were as follows:

Seniors—William Glen, Will Chester, Edwin James and John Hay.

Juniors—Charles Pedri, Mary Whelan, Hannah Calderwood, Dorothy Bunning.

Sophomores—Wesley Chester, Charles Wassung, Edwin Magagna and Raino Matson.

Freshmen—Norma Young, Sidney Reynolds, Elsie Powell and Matthew Anderson.

The Sophomores defeated the Freshmen and the Seniors outclassed the Juniors, leaving the Sophomores and the Seniors to compete for first place. The Sophomores were unable to secure material in time to prepare their speeches, so forfeited the contest to the Seniors. This made the Seniors the champion debaters of the school.

The Debate Club

THIS year two periods each week were devoted to the study of debating. The aim of the Debate Club was to study the construction of speeches, first in the form of a brief and later the finished speech; to learn to talk and think quickly with the least possible number of grammatical errors; and to learn that friends may debate and lose or win and still be friends. Most of the members on the Club, the first semester, took part in the interclass debates and two of the boys, William Glen and John Hay, represented the school at the State Tournament. The class was made up of Sophomores and Freshmen the last semester and they demonstrated such a love for argument and rebuttal, that we named the Club Socrates and Xantippe.

"In the Garden of the Shah"

"In the Garden of the Shah" was pronounced the best entertainment ever given in the Rialto Theatre, by the large audience who witnesses the production. The electrical effects, special scenery and costumes were beautiful and the talent used is difficult to produce in many towns the size of Rock Springs.

The chorus had a personnel of well trained and blended voices. The numbers given by them were handled in a masterful manner, denoting talent of unusual merit.

Miss Rosa Tayo was in splendid voice, the future holding wonderful possibilities if she continues her training. Her obligato was heard above the chorus to great advantage.

James Outsen, playing the part of "Sam," showed his remarkable ability as a clever comedian. Leland Draney as the "Sheik" looked and sang his part well. His bass solo was very much enjoyed by the audience. George McIntosh in his duets with Miss Marjorie Clark, displayed a beautiful tenor voice. Miss Freda Forbes as "Nowobeh," played her part well, her voice being heard throughout the entire audience. John Kessner made a very handsome lover and Joe Shuster was pleasing in the role of the Shah.

Much credit is given the girls for making their own costumes, and the dances were very realistic. The Manual Training Class had charge of the electrical effects which won a compliment for this department of the school.

The profits were used to send the academic contestants to the high school week at the State University last March.

The Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club was organized under the direction of Miss Gibson and Miss Hodges. The Club has presented a number of short plays and programs in General Assembly, and is working on two long plays to be given before school closes. The members:

Boys' Glee Club

DIRECTOR - - - - - MR. CHARLES KENT
 PIANIST - - - - - MISS MINNIE WILLISON

THIS organization, although comparatively little heard of in the past, is now creating a great deal of interest. Boys from the Freshmen to the Senior classes, making an enrollment of thirty-five members, are in the Club. Mr. Kent, head of the Music Department in the R. S. H. S., is the efficient Director.

The Boys' Club has appeared a number of times before the assembly and is ever ready to entertain at a moment's notice. Among the many talented members, enrolled Alex Horsley should be especially mentioned for his success in this Class. The members of the Club formed a very pleasing chorus in the play, "The Garden of the Shah" and helped much in making the play a success.

The Club is now preparing for a musical comedy, to be given in the assembly, for its final appearance, and is working energetically to make this a crowning success.

L. M.

Girls' Glee Club

THE Girls Glee Club, organized September the seventh, under the direction of Mr. Kent. The purpose was to give the girls vocal training and to furnish the school with entertainment.

Many selections from operas were taught in order that the girls might be familiar with the best music.

On several occasions the Girls Glee Club entertained the assembly.

The chorus for the "Garden of the Shah" and some who sang leading roles were selected from the pupils of this class, which proved that much natural talent had been brought out by Mr. Kent's untiring efforts. The operetta was a great success and the girls felt that their hours of practice were well spent.

High School Orchestra

OUR High School Orchestra has proved to be one of the most active organizations this year. Although this is but the second year we have had an orchestra, the membership has grown to such an extent as to prove the pride and interest the school takes in it. The instrumentation this year is slightly changed, but the progress made has been shown by the difficult selections that the orchestra now renders. Under the able leadership of Mr. Brueggemann, the orchestra has become an essential to our school. There are 39 members, as follows:

Synopsis

ACT I.

Scene I. The Dangerfield drawing room of a southern colonial mansion.

Scene II. The same, four hours later.

ACT II.

Scene I. The kitchen of the Dangerfield home.

ACT III.

Scene I. The dining room of the same.

The four children of an old Southern family suddenly find themselves without funds. The mother and father being abroad for the father's health, they decide to rent their old home to a Northerner, who refuses to have colored servants. At the last moment the white servants cannot come, so the four children decide to fill the places of butler, chore boy, housemaid and cook. They are not competent activity, so in the end they all lose their positions but the cook.

Rock Springs High at the Tournament

THE following delegates were sent to the tournament at Laramie to represent this High School in activities:

Violin—Leno Ceretto.

Piano—Josephine Hay.

Vocal—Rosie Tayo.

Declamation—Charles Pedri.

Extemporaneous Speaking—Bill Glen.

Leno Ceretto took first place in Violin. The violin is a difficult instrument to master and it took true talent, much patience and long practicing for Leno to become master of it and accomplish what he has done for himself and for the school.

Charles Pedri was entered for Declamation. In this he received honorable mention.

Rosie Tayo represented the school in vocal. She sang, "I Would Linger."

William Glen took part in Extemporaneous Speaking. His subject was "France and the Ruhr."

The delegates as a group did excellent work, and the school feels that it was well represented.

Etiquette Class

"For manners are not idle, but the fruit of loyal nature and of noble mind."

This year was the first that a course in etiquette was ever offered to the students of the Rock Springs High School. The first semester there was a class of 55 girls and the second semester a class of thirty-three boys. Plans are being made whereby each student can, at some time during his High School study, take the course in etiquette. Text book work is supplemented by practical lessons, especially in table manners. This year the girls demonstrated in assembly correct and incorrect manners in the home and on the street.

The boys' class had a four course dinner served to them by the Department of Home Economics and here they put into practical the proper methods of using linen, silver and china at a meal.

SOCIETY

Senior High Mixers

Girls Mixer—The girls of the Senior High gave a gym party so that everyone could get acquainted and have a good time. They decided to dance and play games instead of eating. Boys Mixer—Boys of the Senior High School gave a stag party. Stunts were pulled off and basket ball was played. Everyone had a good time. It is to be hoped they are all acquainted by now.

Football Dinner

Football Dinner—The members of the Home Economics class demonstrated their talent as cooks when they served a dinner to the Evanston and the Rock Springs football teams, Friday evening, November 3. The dining room was decorated in purple and white in honor of the Evanston team. When the boys entered the dining room each found a little paper lady, dressed in her best gown of purple and white crepe paper guarding his place for him. In the center of the table was a football tied with a purple bow. The menu was as follows: First course, fruit cocktail; second course, salmon loaf, white sauce gravy, Hubbard squash, potatoes on the half shell, hot rolls, cranberry jelly, butter balls and picilily: the third course was ice cream, cake and coffee. The dinner came to a close with a snappy yell for the cooks.

Senior Ball

The Senior Ball, given Friday, December 1st, in the High School Gymnasium was a decided success. A delightful color combination was carried out in the decorations, purple and gold being prominent. Japanese lanterns and parasols added to the attractiveness of the decoration scheme. The dancing, which was a program affair, started at nine o'clock, groups of young people at special periods went in to partake of a very dainty lunch, which was well served by the Freshman Home Economics girls.

Sophomore Class Party

The Sophomores gave their class party on the fifth of December. The first part of the evening was devoted to a well-prepared program. Santa read several letters he had received from the Sophomores, asking him to bring them some needed gifts. About ten o'clock a three-piece orchestra arrived and furnished music for dancing. A lunch was served during the intermission by the boys of the class.

Junior Class Party

Another pre-holiday party was that of the Junior class party at the gym. A beautiful Christmas tree was the attraction to everyone present, also the gym was decorated in Christmas colors, gifts were given to the Juniors and their guests. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing. A delicious lunch was served after the dance.

Freshman Class Party

The Freshmen gave a class party at the gym during the pre-holiday season. A beautiful Christmas tree was in evidence. A holiday program was given and indoor games were played. Light refreshments were served to those present.

Basketball Dinner

The girls' basket ball team entertained the boys' basketball team at dinner March 29. The dinner was cooked and served by the Home Ec III girls. The table was attractively decorated in Easter colors. After dinner games and dancing were enjoyed in the gym.

Home Ec. Dinner

Tuesday, April 3, the girls of Home Ec III were served a very pretty and well-planned dinner. The dinner, under the direction of Hanna Calderwood and Ida Theusen, was served in a combination of English and Russian style. Miss Calderwood acted as host and Miss Theusen as hostess.

Junior Benefit Dance

On March 31 the boys of the Junior class gave a dance in the gym to help raise money for the annual. A cordial invitation was extended to the High School pupils and the public. Ice cream cones were sold. The proceeds amounted to nearly $25. Music was furnished by the High School orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Brueggemann.

Schwiering Entertains

Mr. and Mrs. Schwiering entertained the teachers at a delightful dancing party in the new Yellowstone building Friday, April 6. Dancing began at 9 in two of the grade rooms and cards were played in the living room. Punch and wafers were served. Music was furnished by Brueggemann's orchestra. About a hundred guests were present.

Freshman Home Ec. Party

The Freshman Home Ec. girls held a party on April 6. The decorations were carried out in the class colors, red and white. The girls all came in costumes. The evening was spent in stunts and dancing. Lunch was served during the evening. The Home Ec. room was arranged to represent a cabaret.

Junior Prom

On Friday evening, April 20, the Junior Class of '24 entertained the Seniors with a delightful prom. Beautiful ferns, vines and flowers transformed the gym into a wonderful garden. The color scheme was lavender and white. Strips of lattice work entwined with wisteria blossoms screened off cozy corners. Four large baskets of wisteria blossoms were hung from the two ends and sides of the room. Punch and wafers were served. About one hundred and seventy-five guests were present.

Poster Art

THE Poster Art Club was organized September the seventh, for the purpose of learning to make attractive and artistic posters for all occasions

There were about 18 members in this class and they were divided into two sections of nine pupils to the section. The first section met Monday and Wednesday, the second, Tuesday and Thursday.

All of the activities of the school year have been so successfully advertised by this method that the class feels that it has accomplished its aim.

Foreign Language Department

All languages are elective in the Rock Springs High School. At the present time three languages are offered: French, Latin and Spanish. Three years of each are given if there is a demand for them.

English Department

THE English Department of the Rock Springs High School, instead of being shunned, is becoming one of the most popular departments of the school. The modern trend toward practicality of all instruction has made its impression on the course of study of all English classes. Old subject matter has been revised in order to fit in with the modern ideas, and new courses of practical value have been added. Oral English is given a prominent place in all classes by means of various English Clubs.

Fourth year English deals with the history of literature and supplementary readings. This is being taught with the view of helping the students to appreciate the good literature of the past and of enabling them to become competent judges of modern literature.

The newest and perhaps the most interesting English course is that given to third-year students. For the first time Journalism as a study has been introduced. This class prepares for publication the school paper known as "The Sagebrusher." In addition to this, the Annual is being published by a staff chosen from the members of this class.

In the second-year classes, Business English is being taught. It is the aim of the instructors to interpret English as it is used today by the careful business man. In connection with this definite points of business procedure are being discussed. Oral English is given a prominent place because of its importance in the transaction of business.

Freshman English deals largely with the fundamentals of composition and rhetoric. An attempt is being made to deal only with that subject matter which is of practical value to the student. In connection with these

WE ARE ALWAYS LEARNING

The lesson learned in High School should help us in mastering the lessons we have to learn in the School of Life.

---

One of the important lessons to be learned is that of Thrift; the man or woman who learns it in early life has a decided advantage over those who do not.

Appreciation

FOR eight months the work of building the Sagebrusher has gone on with increased vigor and determination.

Almost frantic cries have gone out for copy, and repeated again and again until the editor seemed to despair of all hope.

But despite all the difficulties and hardships that come with the edition of an Annual the Sagebrusher will soon be a reality.

To those members of the staff who responded willingly when called upon and those students who were not members of the staff, but who helped in the building of the Annual, special mention is due George Berta, Emma Nelson, Dorothy Bunning, Elden Johnson, Ksenia Asiala, Dorothea Stark, Edgar Meldrin, Leno Menghini, Mary Whelan, Ethel Anderson and Katherine Subic.

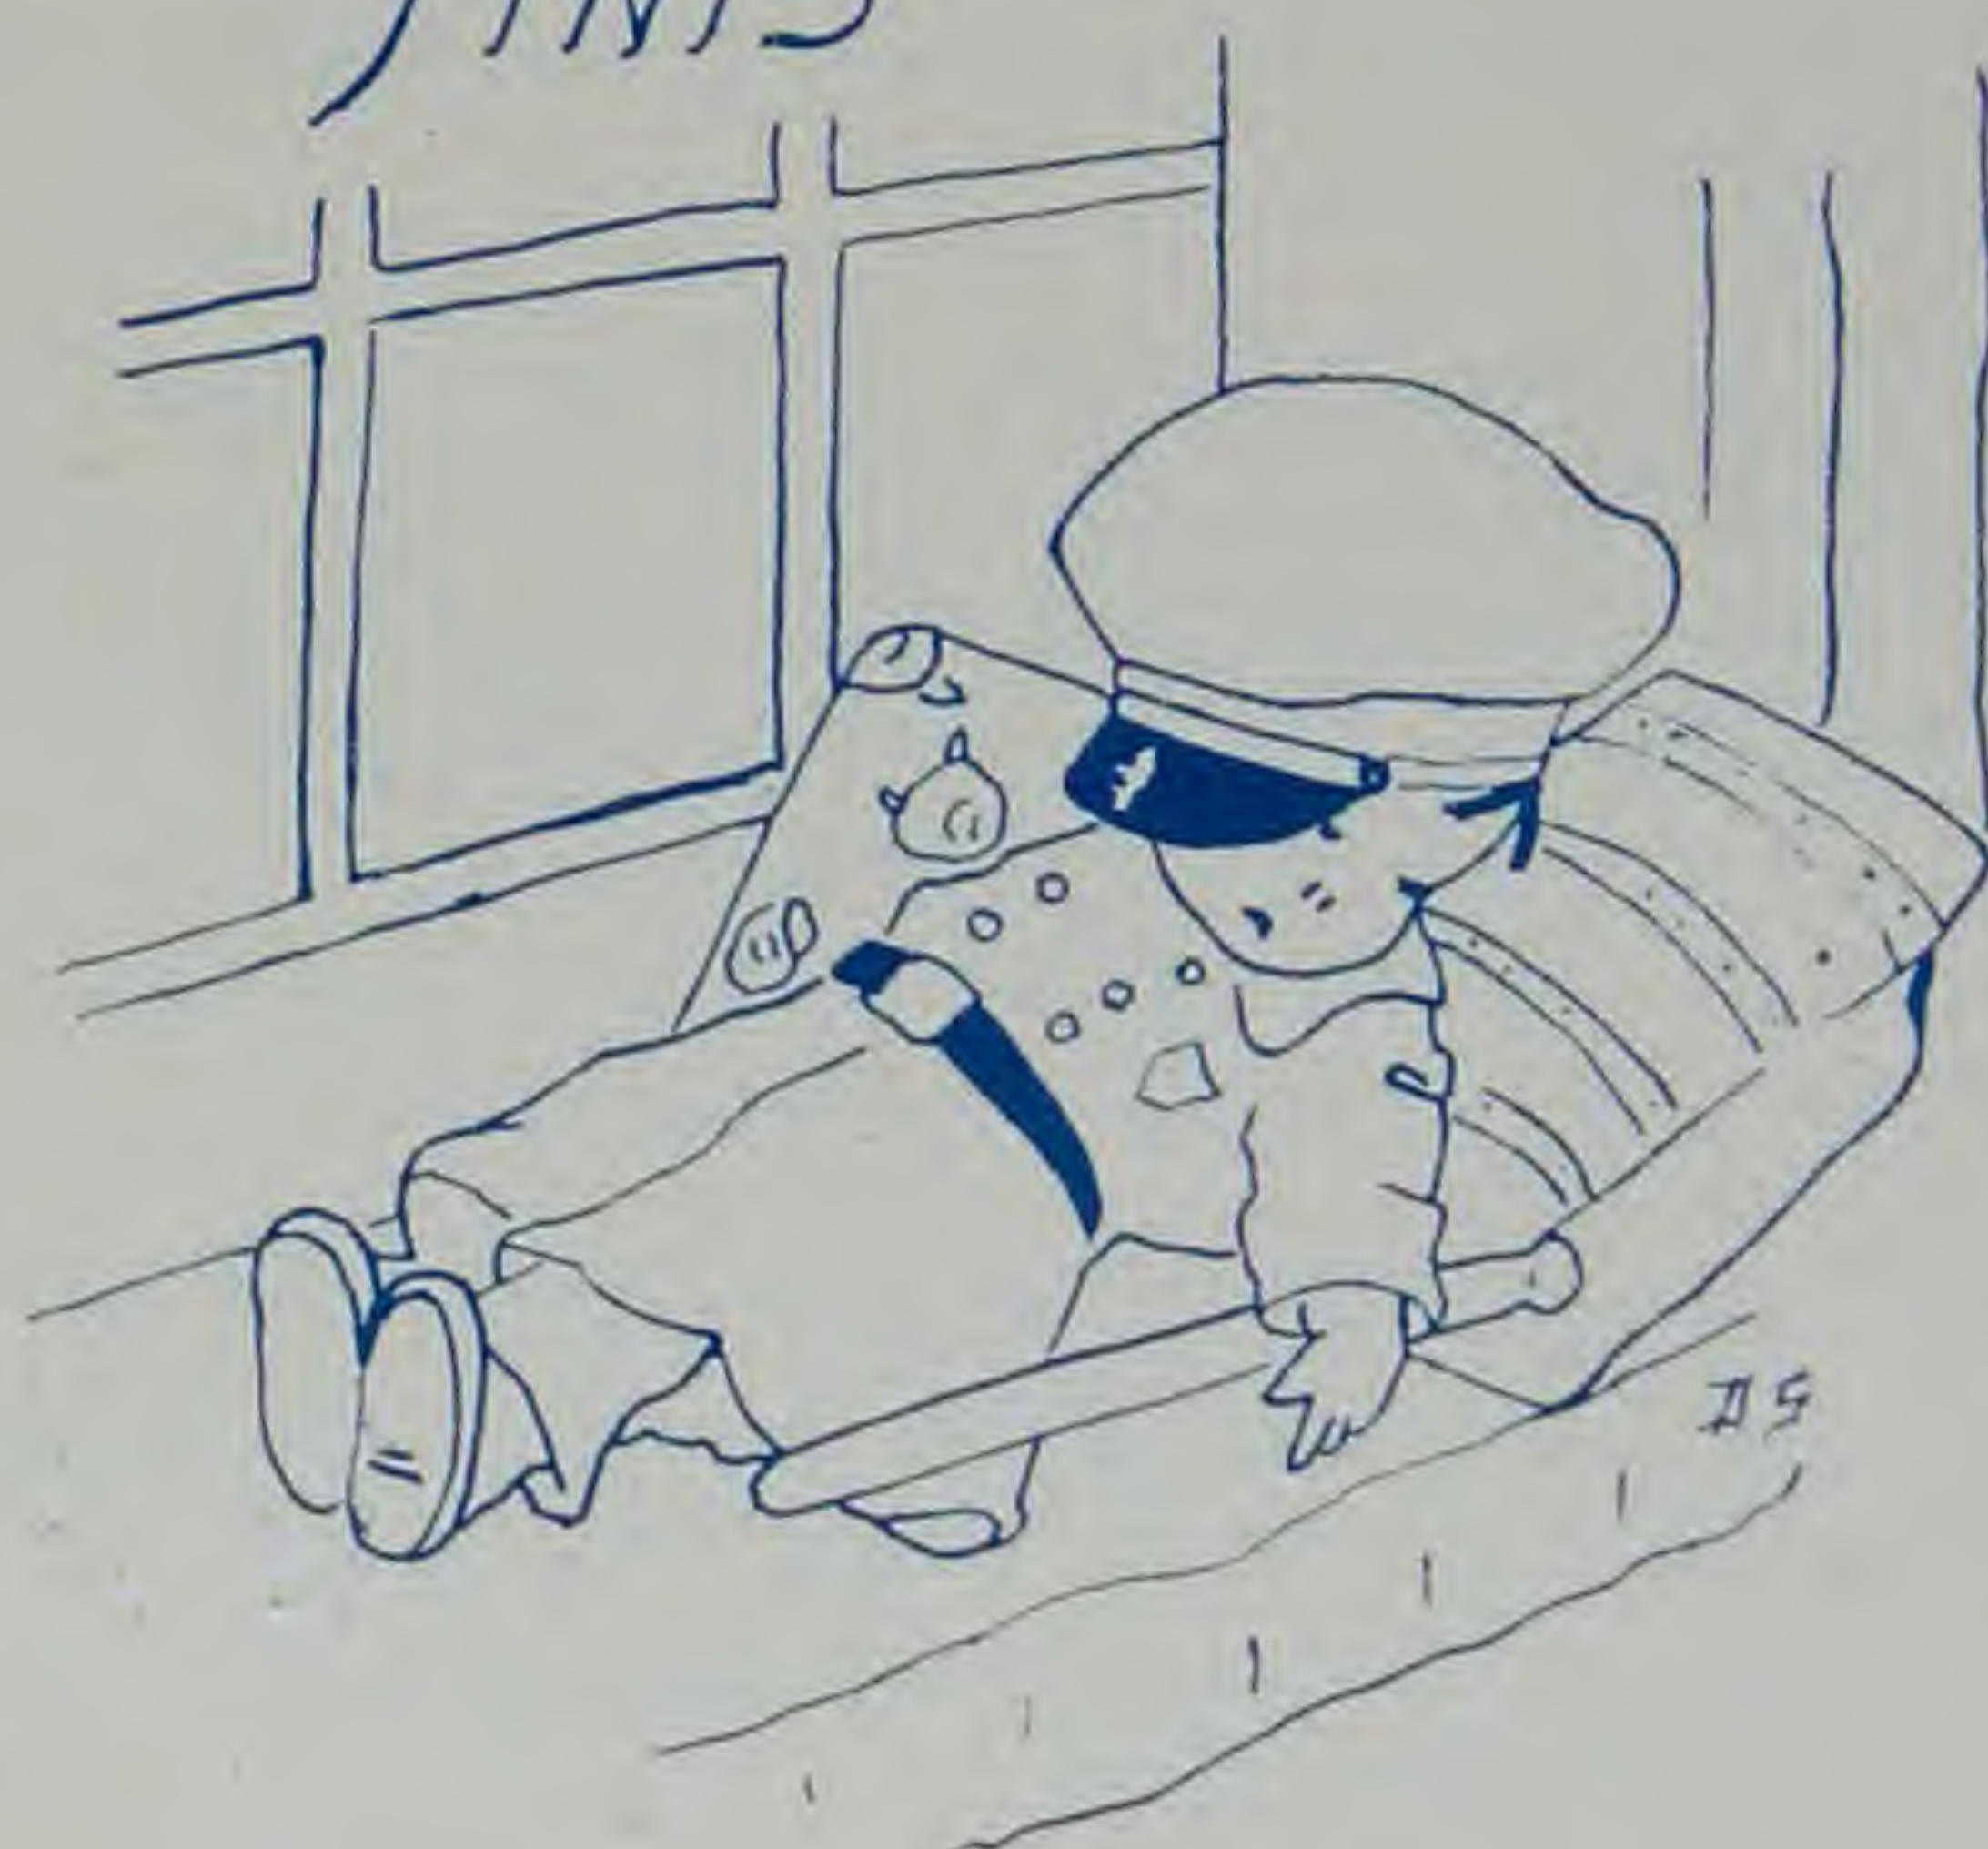

In this connection the editor would not forget the invaluable assistance rendered by Mr. John Hay, Mr. William Gottsche, Dr. D. B. Park, Dr. Deuel, Dr. E. S. Lauzer, Mr. William Aleneus, Mr. John Ryan, Dr. H. J. Arbogast, and Mr. Sam Ward.

We trust that the student body will show their appreciation of the men who have advertised in this book by reading the ads carefully and by patronizing those who have patronized us, thus making this book possible.

LILLIAN SPARKS, Editor.
